Sébastien Lérique

1 Location and interlocutors

As explained in section 4 of the research project, all the work is planned to take place at the Centre Marc Bloch in Berlin.

My main interlocutors will be Camille Roth, co-advisor for my PhD and leader of the Digital Humanities team at the CMB, the team members of the Digital Humanities group, and Mehdi Moussaïd (at the Max Plank Institute for Human Development in Berlin) with whom we have developed a collaboration around transmission chain experiments.
